"In a city so bright, on a tropical isle,
A sunny day ends, with a sigh and a smile.
When the sun bows its head, a soft whisper blows by,
Bringing cool, bringing calm, to the Singapore sky.
As the bustle dies down on a summery day,
Something stirs over there, in a mysterious way."

The Fibonacci Revelation

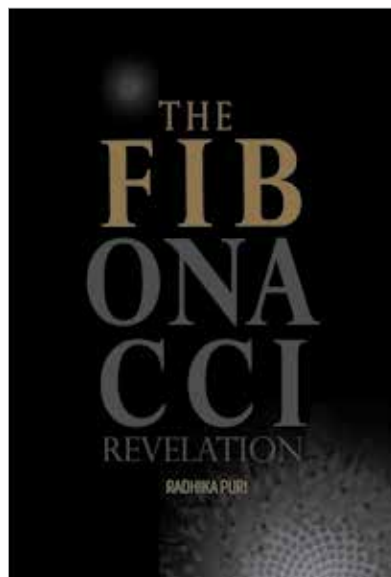

WRITTEN BY RADHIKA PURI

Written by award-winning journalist

Learn facts about Singapore's history

A mysterious coded poem - attached to a 1954 archived photo of the National Service riots in Singapore - sets off a chain of events that unravels secrets from the past.

Disparate clues are connected by only one thing - concepts linked to the Fibonacci sequence. As Clara and Owen decipher what the clues mean, they find themselves looking into Singapore's dark past - the time the dreaded Kempeitai reigned and communism held its sway.

Nightmare on Eat Street

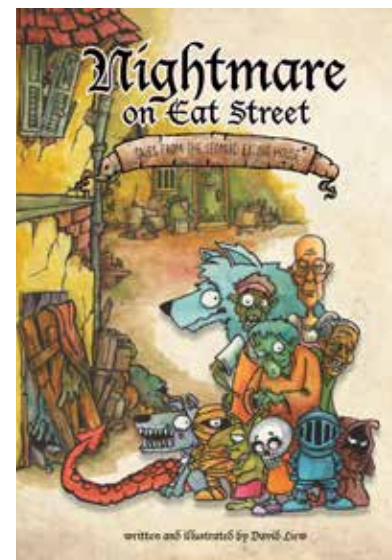

WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED BY DAVID LIEW

Written by award-winning illustrator

With a writing style reminiscent of German author Walter Moers, David Liew invites you into the lives of a ragtag gang of misfits, set against a fantastical backdrop.

The first-time author - who is also artist, sculptor, illustrator, animator and educator - uses an experimental blend of graphic novel and prose to spin a madcap adventure in an eating house patronised by some really unwieldy folks.

So in a restaurant where an emotional dragon serves as fire-starter, a zombie-wannabe-chef pushes culinary boundaries (out to the tables) and diners unwittingly bring along murderous relatives, mayhem can only ensue...

It is rumoured among foodies that there is a unique eatery offering cuisine that is truly out of this world. They say that it's somewhere in the Lesser Yiwil Road area, but all you find there is the unspeakable Leopard Eating House and its generally inedible menu.

But they're not rumours. The Eat Street Dining Club does exist - and it does offer fare that defies the human palate. It has to - since its patrons are either undead, reanimated or supernatural.

When a new resident joins the group, her presence isn't welcomed by everybody in the Club. The newcomer has a dark secret and it's going to be revealed in an explosive confrontation...

The RunHideSeek Trilogy

WRITTEN BY GABBY TYE

Penned by 21-year-old national bestselling author Gabby Tye, the RunHideSeek trilogy is a modern-day Hansel and Gretel story that tackles the themes of food shortage, genetically-modified crops, and the ethics of survival in a world where adults have abandoned their children in the desperate attempt to save themselves.

The first book of the Young Adult trilogy, Run, introduces a young girl who finds herself in a post-apocalyptic scenario – a Singapore in ghastly ruins. She finds solace among a band of similarly ragged teens as they struggle to survive while running from crazed cannibalistic grown-ups and roving gangs eyeing their food. Meanwhile, she also discovers her latent powers of telekinesis and the ability to read minds.

The second book in the trilogy, Hide, was released in 2014 while Seek was released in 2015. The movie rights to the RunHideSeek series have been optioned to Woosh Pictures Pte Ltd.

Following the trilogy's popularity, a two-part sequel was launched in 2017. EVER raced to the top of the bestseller lists in Singapore within one week of its release, and stayed there for more than three months. AFTER was launched in 2019, and was on the bestselling list for four months.

Format: Paperback
Genre: Young Adult

This is a story about the overlooked, the forgotten, the forsaken. The ones everyone deemed insignificant.

This is a story about them finding out just how important they really are.

But let's start from the beginning...

The Rage Trilogy

WRITTEN BY ELODIE KYRA

Written by Singapore's youngest national bestselling author Elodie Kyra, who is 18, this trilogy shines the spotlight on Singapore's demanding education system, and asks: What does it mean to be a perfect student?

Jordan and best friend James find themselves in the middle of a perplexing mystery when everyone in their school – the Singapore School for the Gifted – suddenly turns strangely well-behaved.

Together, they try to figure out what is making them behave this way – and why? As they struggle to fit in and remain unaffected, they begin to unravel a sinister conspiracy... one that affects the future of Singapore.

SOCIETAL ISSUES

- Themes of social justice and inequality
- Friendship and loyalty
- Standing up for what is right
